

During this webinar, Martine Boswell will discuss SB 1383's draft edible food recovery regulations. The California Department of Resources, Recycling and Recovery (CalRecycle) began the formal rulemaking process for SB 1383 on January 18, 2019. Please be aware that while CalRecycle is in formal rulemaking for SB 1383, any response or guidance provided by Martine Boswell during the webinar represents only initial thinking and does not represent a final decision from CalRecycle. To receive definitive guidance on the proposed regulations please consult the final rulemaking package.

Procedure for Submitting Comments to CalRecycle

If you would like to submit comments on SB 1383's draft regulations, you may do so by submitting your comments to CalRecycle's Short-lived Climate Pollutants (SLCP) inbox. All comments must be submitted during the designated 15-day formal comment period. Comments germane to the regulatory revisions contained in the updated text will be entered in the record and considered.
